The new Unitarian Church in this city, at the corner of Yamhill and Seventh streets, was dedicated to religious worship last Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Dr. Stebbins, of San Francisco, delivered the dedicatory sermon, a remarkably eloquent discourse, listened to with the silence and attention which this pulpit orator always commands. The society is in a sound financial condition, there being no indebtedness hanging over the church.

There is a general theory among farmers and ranchers on the Columbia that in those years when the total rainfall from November to June is greatest there is the greatest liability for a June flood. By an examination of records, it is found that the theory, as a general rule, is correct. Inasmuch as the rainfall the past Winter and Spring is greater than for any year in the past ten, with the exception of 1876, the conclusion is drawn that we may expect to see the water in our streets this year. Of course, the fall of snow will also affect the rise.

THE NEW NORTHWEST.

NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION!

THE NEW NORTHWEST.

A Weekly Journal

DEVOTED TO THE PEOPLE'S BEST INTERESTS!

Independent in Politics and Religion!

THIS WELL-KNOWN WEEKLY JOURNAL

begins its Ninth Year of Publication with its issue of May 1st, 1879, under the business management of the DUNWAY PUBLISHING COMPANY, to whom all letters connected with the Editorial, Advertising or Subscription Departments of the paper are to be hereafter directed.

The New Northwest is not a Woman's Rights, but a Human Rights organ, devoted to whatever policy may be necessary to secure the greatest good to the greatest number. It knows no sex, no politics, no religion, no party, no color, no creed. Its foundation is fastened upon the rock of Eternal Liberty, Universal Emancipation and Untrammeled Progression.
